Warning Letter Re: FPPC Case No. 11/844; Forescee Hogan-Rowles

Dear Ms. Hogan-Rowles:

The Fair Political Practices Commission ("FPPC") enforces the provisions of the Political Reform Act ("Act") found in Government Code Section 81000, and following. The Act requires that employees designated in their agency's conflict of interest code file Statements of Economic Interests (Form 700) when they assume office, annually thereafter, and within 30 days of leaving their position.

The FPPC found that you failed to timely file a 2010 Annual Statement of Economic Interests by the April 1, 2011, deadline, and failed to timely file a Leaving Office Statement of Economic Interests within 30 days of leaving office. However, because you have since filed both statements and left office, we are closing this matter with a warning letter.

This letter serves as a written warning. The information in this matter will be retained and may be considered should an enforcement action become necessary based on future conduct or newly discovered information. Failure to comply with the provisions of the Act in the future will result in monetary penalties of up to $5,000 for each violation.

A warning letter is an FPPC case resolution without administrative prosecution or fine. However, the warning letter resolution does not provide you with the opportunity for a probable cause hearing or hearing before an Administrative Law Judge or the Fair Political Practices Commission. If you wish to avail yourself of these proceedings by requesting that your case proceed with prosecution rather than a warning, please notify us within ten (10) days from the date of this letter. Upon this notification, the FPPC will rescind this warning letter and proceed with administrative prosecution of this case. If we do not receive such notification, this warning letter will be posted on the FPPC's website ten (10) days from the date of this letter.

The FPPC publishes forms and manuals to facilitate compliance with the provisions of the Act. If you need forms or a manual, or guidance regarding your obligations, please call the FPPC's Technical Assistance Division at 1-866-275-3772. Please also visit our website at www.fppc.ca.gov.

Please feel free to contact me at (916) 327-6357 with any questions you may have regarding this letter.

Sincerely,
